SPECIAL RULES

1. All sections are combined for boys and girls.
2. Certificates are awarded according to symbols.
3. The eldest age in the group will be definitive in all ensemble-items.
4. All the names of participants in ensemble groups must be provided on the entry form.
5. Candidates must comply with all requirements in all sections.
6. A candidate may not present the same work in more than one category.
7. A candidate may not present the same work in two consecutive years.
8. A candidate may not present the same work they have previously won a trophy for.
9. A candidate is only allowed to enter either for a Duo, Trio or Quartet, but not all three categories.
10. Please ensure that language used, is appropriate for an eisteddfod forum.
11. Awards: Candidates who wish to qualify for an award must ensure that all requirements are met.
 - Item Winners: An item winner is designated for each session and is indicated by an "Item Winner" sticker on the certificate. The minimum requirement for an item winner is an A++.
 - ⇒ The adjudicator may also decide not to designate an item winner, for example when there is only one participant in the session, or when two or three participants are awarded the same percentage.
 - ⇒ The adjudicator's decision is final.
 - ⇒ The On-Cue Encore Award is awarded to all participants who achieve 95% or higher.
 - Category Winners: A category winner sticker is awarded to the candidate with the highest percentage in the category, e.g. Poetry, Dramatized Poetry, Prose, etc.
 - ⇒ Category winner stickers may be collected from the organiser after the Pretoria Drama Eisteddfod.
 - Trophy Winners: Category winners and On-Cue Encore award recipients automatically qualify for trophies. Trophy winners are determined by the trophy panel in consultation with the adjudicators. The trophy panel may decide to consider a single item, a recital or concert programme, a group item, or the average of the winning candidates' best performances to determine the winner. The trophy panel's decision is final. Unprepared items and public speaking are not excluded.
12. To be considered for an award the candidate should at least participate on the same day of the specific category.
13. Please stick to the rule. If not, a school/studio will be asked to enter participants in another item or to cancel the entry without any refund.
14. Drama boxes will not be available. Teachers to supply their own props.
15. Competitors' dress: Black leotard & black tight (Girls) or black shirt or black T-shirt with short trousers or black tracksuit pants.
16. All competitors must introduce themselves as well as the piece performed to the adjudicator.

17. Recital (Concert Programme)

- Performed in full costume or with minimal costuming that supports the character/theme.
- A well-balanced programme (in terms of genres, humour, drama, etc.) must be presented, with an emphasis on variety, contrast, and a continuous theme.
- Commentary/links may, if necessary, form part of the programme.
- Sound effects and/or music may be used.
- The candidate must provide proof of versatility (a minimum of 3 items is required, including poetry, prose, and drama).
- There must be a balance between static and dramatized items.
- Any technical aids and décor used must be kept to a minimum.
- The performance time limit is as indicated, plus an additional 5 minutes for setting up and removing equipment.
- Additional persons are permitted to assist with equipment. Time limits will be strictly controlled.
- Candidates must strictly adhere to the prescribed requirements and time limits.

18. Décor, props, music equipment and rostra

- Coaches are responsible for the above items.
- Organisers accept no responsibility for equipment or props of any kind.
- Only own equipment may be used.
- Permission for use must be obtained from the owner if equipment is borrowed.
- Rostra and studio clothing must be clearly marked.
- No open flames may be used as part of any programme (e.g. candle flames). This is prohibited by municipal regulations.
- Dressing rooms must be left neat and clean.

19. Withdrawals and conflicting dates

- Changes due to clashes with important sports matches or other sections of the Pretoria Drama Eisteddfod must be communicated in advance, before the closing date, by the affiliated member (i.e. the responsible institution that entered the participant), in a single email to management.
- As far as possible, every effort will be made to accommodate the participant earlier or later the same day. In the event of illness, participation will be moved to a later date after receipt of a doctor's certificate.

20. Submission of copies of prepared items:

- For prepared group work (excluding dialogues), a summary of the programme must be handed to the organiser immediately before the start of the item.
- Copies of other individual items are not required, except in the case of recital concert programmes and scenes, which must be submitted at the table before the start of the item. All summaries and texts will be returned to the candidate together with the report and certificate.

21. Additional certificates and certificates for group items:

- Spelling errors in participants' personal details and errors relating to incorrect grades must be corrected before the closing date (30 April 2026).
- Reprinting of certificates due to errors on the entry forms will be issued at a cost of R40 per certificate.
